"Shadowfax was instrumental in the sale of my Adult Day Care facility. The team really gained an understanding of why I needed to sell and what I was looking for from a buyer. They are not just main street business brokers, they guided me every step of the way, from completing an in-depth valuation and finding a buyer, all the way through the closing. They really understood the complexities of operating an Adult Day Care, which helped me get the most value for my business." - Owner, 2017
