

NADSA CENTER OF DISTINCTION APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

NADSA began recognizing the ADS Center of Distinction on an annual basis in 2022. Previous winners of the quarterly award are eligible to submit their centers for the annual award. Once your center has won the annual award it is no longer eligible to enter again.

Award Submission Criteria:

- You must be a NADSA Member to participate. Current Board Members are exempt.
- Previous winners of the quarterly award are eligible to submit their center for consideration for the annual award. (Previous submissions will not be considered.) Previous annual award winners are not eligible.
- Centers may submit as many times as they choose but can only win the annual award once.
- The winner will have the option to share a short PowerPoint presentation highlighting its center at the conference as part of the award presentation.
- NADSA will promote the winning center on its social media platforms and on the website.

Criteria for Selecting the Center:

1. Attach two letters of recommendation from people familiar with your Center's work. (10 points)
2. Please describe how the Center is committed to person-centered care. (20 points)
3. Please describe the activities of your Center in detail. (20 points)
4. Please describe in detail your community relations and advocacy efforts. (20 points)
5. Provide additional information on your Center that makes it a standout in Adult Day Services. Provide examples that include relevant performance indicators (e.g., including impact, business practice or other relevant performance indicators). (30 points)

Selection:

Winner will be chosen by a committee of Members.
